THE SYMPHONY OF SPORTS AND CULTURE: A CELEBRATION OF EXCELLENCE AND UNITY

"Sports unites hearts, culture enriches minds, and together they inspire greatness."

The Symphony of Sports and Culture, hosted by Army Public School, Wellington, on 5th December 2024, at the WGC Grounds, was a splendid showcase of talent, sportsmanship, and cultural vibrancy. The event was graced by Lieutenant General Virendra Vats, YSM, SM, VSM, Senior Patron of APS Wellington, and Mrs. Namita Vats as the Chief Guest. Other distinguished guests included Major General VS Sekhon, YSM, SM, Patron of APS Wellington, and Mrs. Joshiba Sekhon, Brigadier R.K. Prusty, VSM, Chairman of APS Wellington, and Mrs. Ambika Prusty, and Colonel Sangeeta Sardana, Nodal Officer of the school.

The program commenced with a melodious Prayer Song, followed by a warm welcome address by Ms. Hema Frank, the Principal. The event was officially declared open by Mrs. Namitha Vats through a symbolic release of balloons, signifying hope and unity.

This was followed by an impressive march past featuring the NCC cadets, Scouts, Guides, and contingents from the four houses: Gandhi, Tagore, Nehru, and Patel. Mrs. Namitha Vats felicitated district and state-level achievers, while Lt. General Virendra Vats presented awards to international achievers. The Chief Guest addressed the audience, emphasizing the importance of sports and cultural integration in holistic education. A series of cultural highlights enthralled the audience, including , yoga displays, a junior drill, aerobics, and Zumba sessions. Demonstrations of Karate and Silambam further energized the atmosphere. The day also featured engaging junior events such as the "Building Blocks" and "Off to School", which fostered teamwork and creativity among the younger students. Gandhi House bagged the Best March Past Trophy and emerged as the Best House, with Tagore House as runners-up.

AN ENRICHING EDUCATIONAL SOJOURN

"The journey of learning leads to the treasures of wisdom."

From 5th to 8th December 2024, students of Classes IX to XII embarked on an enriching educational trip to OTA Chennai. The visit to the prestigious Officers Training Academy on 6th December featured an inspiring address by Lt. Gen. Michael AJ L AJ Fernandez, AVSM, VSM, Commandant, OTA. Students explored the academy's museum, library, Drill Square, Equitation Training Centre, Acharya Training Centre, and Yodha Cadets Mess. Staying at the historic 16 Battalion Madras Regiment, they also visited St. Thomas Cathedral. The trip concluded with a fascinating heritage tour of Mahabalipuram, combining lessons in leadership and cultural appreciation.

STRENGTHENING BONDS: PARENT-TEACHER MEETINGS

"Education is a shared commitment between dedicated teachers, motivated students, and enthusiastic parents."

On December 7, 2024, the school conducted Parent-Teacher Meeting for classes I and II following the completion of First Term Assessment as well as for classes X and XII after the Pre-Board I examinations. The sessions provided a platform for parents to engage directly with teachers, discussing their children's academic progress, behavior, and overall development.

TEACHERS HONOURED FOR EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

" A teacher ignites the fire that fuels a student's thirst for knowledge."

On 29th December, Sri Sakthi Engineering College, Coimbatore, hosted a special event to recognize outstanding contributions to education. During this prestigious occasion, three esteemed educators from our school, Ms. J. Janila Paul (PGT Biology), Ms. T. Uma Mageswari (TGT Maths) and Ms. Rosy Daly (KGT) were felicitated with the "Best Teacher Award".

The award celebrates their unwavering dedication, innovative teaching methodologies, and their positive impact on students' lives.

SPREADING JOY AND FESTIVITY: A HEARTWARMING CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

"The spirit of Christmas is in the heart, not in the presents."

On 13th December, the festive spirit enveloped APS Wellington as students performed melodious carols and participated in vibrant dances. The arrival of Santa Claus added to the excitement, as students joyfully danced with him and received sweets, making the celebration a memorable and heartwarming event for all.
